Arwah berseloroh siapa akan 'pergi' dahulu

Segamat: "Arwah minta bergambar beramai-ramai buat kenang-kenangan sambil berseloroh mana tahu seorang daripada kita pergi dulu.

"Itulah gambar terakhir kami empat beradik dan semalam, dia sekeluarga pergi buat selamanya," kata Norhayati Noor Muhamad, 51, kakak kepada Norahimah, mangsa kemalangan enam sekeluarga yang maut dalam nahas lima kenderaan di Kilometer 5, Jalan Segamat-Kuantan di sini, kelmarin.

Kemalangan dipercayai berpunca daripada sebuah lori pasir yang hilang kawalan lalu memasuki laluan bertentangan dan bertembung dengan kereta dinaiki mangsa.

Norhayati berkata, Norahimah adalah anak ketiga daripada empat adik beradik.

Beliau yang juga guru agama berkata, kali terakhir berjumpa dengan keluarga arwah adiknya itu pada Ahad lalu ketika majlis perkahwinan adik bongsu mereka, Norahila, 36, di rumah ibu mereka di Parit Jawa, Muar dekat sini.

Pada majlis itu, beliau berkata, Norahimah sempat berseloroh untuk mengambil gambar kenang-kenangan sebelum seorang daripada mereka meninggal dunia.

"Saya anak kedua dan Norahimah rapat dengan adik bongsu (Norahila), ketika kenduri hari itu, arwah minta bergambar beramai-ramai, dia cakap mana tahu seorang daripada kita pergi dahulu boleh buat kenang-kenangan," katanya katanya ketika ditemui di Jabatan Perubatan Forensik

Pesan mengenai kematian

Rakan sekerja Amir Ruddin, Mohd Noor Hamizl, tidak sangka sikap arwah yang selalu berpesan mengenai kematian, dosa, pahala dan jangan lengahkan waktu solat sejak dua minggu lalu adalah 'wasiat' seorang kawan.

Mohd Noor berkata, dia tidak menyangka nasihat arwah yang juga Imam Masjid Ladang Tereh Utara, Kluang kepadanya dan rakan lain yang disampaikan secara santai menjadi petanda sahabatnya itu akan pergi buat selama-lamanya.

"Dia sering ceritakan hal dunia yang sementara dan pelbagai perkara pelik yang berlaku dalam kehidupan seharian tanpa mengira dosa sejak kebelakangan ini.

"Sebagai rakan dan menganggapnya seperti abang kandung, saya akur dengan nasihatnya supaya bersabar dan jangan bertindak di luar batasan, tetapi tidak sangka kekerapan nasihatnya itu menjadi petanda dia pergi dalam kemalangan tragik," katanya ketika ditemui di Jabatan Forensik Hospital Segamat, di sini, pagi semalam.

Batu Pahat: Dilahirkan dalam keluarga susah, mendorong seorang pemuda berbangsa Cina bergiat aktif dalam kerja kebajikan, termasuk menyampaikan barangan keperluan kepada yang memerlukan tanpa mengira kaum.

Bermula sejak Perintah Kawalan Pergerakan (PKP) pada 2020, Klaus Lim aktif mengedarkan sumbangan terutamanya susu dan lampin pakai buang, sehingga digelar "Abang Susu" oleh masyarakat setempat.

Menurut Klaus, melihatkan ramai yang tidak dapat keluar bekerja malah ada juga sebahagiannya kekurangan wang untuk membeli keperluan asas, telah mengimbuai kehidupan dirinya sewaktu kecil yang hidup serba kekurangan.

"Pada mulanya saya membantu jiran-jiran terdekat saja tetapi melihatkan ramai yang mempunyai anak kecil tetapi tidak berkemampuan membeli susu dan lampin, membuatkan saya terdetik untuk berkongsi rezeki dengan mereka.

"Saya pernah mempunyai pengalaman hidup berada dalam keadaan susah, sebab itulah saya tidak boleh melihat jika ada keluarga yang kesusahan, terutamanya jika bayi atau kanak-kanak tidak mempunyai susu untuk diminum," kata bapa kepada dua cahaya mata itu kepada Bernama dalam satu temu ramah, baru-baru ini.

Pemuda berusia 35 tahun itu bersama abangnya, Marcus Lim, 38, turut menubuhkan tabung kebajikan daripada syarikat milik mereka, Wellspring Buildtrade, selain satu pertubuhan bukan kerajaan

"Ramai ada anak kecil tetapi tak mampu beli susu dan lampin, membuatkan saya terdetik berkongsi rezeki"

(NGO) iaitu Pertubuhan Kebajikan Sinar Harapan Batu Pahat, bagi memperluaskan skop usaha kebajikan.

Beliau berkata, kerja amal yang diteruskan sehingga kini, telah memanfaatkan kira-kira 6,000 keluarga bukan hanya di negeri ini, malah di negeri lain seperti Selangor yang terjejas akibat banjir.

Inisiatif Klaus yang dibantu 18 orang pekerja, turut mendapat pengiktirafan apabila beliau menerima anugerah Britishpedia 2023 dan Anugerah Khas Top 40 G40 2023.

"Saya bersama abang ju-ga isteri saya, Shareen Hwong, 31, kini turut membantu pesakit kronik seperti pesakit jantung dan kanser dalam usaha mereka mendapatkan rawatan.

"Baru-baru ini saya membantu pesakit jantung untuk mendapatkan rawatan di Institut Jantung Negara (IJN) dan pesakit kanser mendapatkan rawatan kimoterapi di mana perbelanjaan pengangkutan, penginapan serta 'duit kocek' telah diberikan sebagai usaha meringankan beban," katanya yang juga berhasrat mempunyai rumah kebajikan suatu hari nanti.

Kuala Lumpur

Sazali ketika dihubungi berkata, biarpun impiannya untuk bertemu Perdana Menteri tidak kesampaian namun dia tetap bersyukur dengan bantuan dihulurkan beliau melalui Setiausaha Politik, Ahmad Farhan Fauzi.

"Isteri saya sudah lama menderita masalah tulang belakang dan saraf di leher. Dia memang perlukan rawatan segera di hospital dan saya memang sudah lama berusaha mendapatkan bantuan daripada pelbagai agensi termasuk Perdana Menteri sebelum ini.

"Alhamdulillah semalam (kelmarin) saya menerima kunjungan daripada wakil Perdana Menteri yang sanggup menghulurkan sedikit sumbangan.

"Saya rasa amat terharu dengan keprihatinan beliau memandangkan keadaan isteri saya sekarang ini pun sukar untuk berjalan dan berdiri secara normal," katanya.

Terdahulu Anwar menerusi perkongsian di Facebook miliknya memaklumkan kunjungan Setiausaha Politiknya di kediaman Sazali dan berharap sumbangan yang diberikan dapat meringankan beban Sazali sekeluarga.

Harian Metro sebelum ini melaporkan Sazali memohon bantuan kewangan buat isterinya yang akan menjalani pembedahan akibat masalah tulang belakang dan saraf di leher.

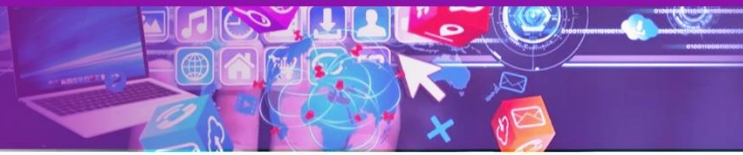

Sazali juga berdepan masalah kesihatan dan sudah tidak boleh bekerja seperti dahulu. Pendapatan daripada royalti arwah bapanya yang diterima setiap tahun memang menjadi sumber kewangan untuk meneruskan kelangsungan hidup.

Malah, bayaran royalti terakhir P Ramlee untuk bahagiannya yang terima pada 31 Julai lalu daripada Badan Perlindungan Hak Cipta Muzik Berhad (MACP) hanya kira-kira RM9,000 saja dan tidak cukup untuk menampung kos pembedahan isteri yang dimaklumkan sekitar RM14,000.

Sebelum ini permohonan lanjutan kontrak royalti P Ramlee yang disuarakannya diharapkan dapat diselesaikan Menteri Perdagangan Dalam Negeri dan Kos Sara Hidup, Allahyarham Datuk Seri Salahuddin Ayub namun beliau meninggal dunia pada 23 Julai lalu.

SUHAKAM RECOMMENDATIONS

'Children's Commission should have more powers'

KUALA LUMPUR: The proposed independent Children's Commission, under the soon-to-be tabled Children's Commission Bill, must be given expanded mandates and greater powers, said the Human Right Commission of Malaysia (Suhakam).

It said yesterday these included unrestricted access to shelters, detention centres as well as access to child-related data.

The commission must also be allocated a sufficient budget and resources.

While it had an Office of the Children's Commissioner (OCC) within its institution in 2019, it was not sufficient to address the many issues relating to child rights, given the OCC's limited capacity and resources, it said.

"We also proposed the appointment of full-time commissioners to ensure the commission can fulfil its role and execute its mandate.

"(Suhakam recommends that) the commission become an oversight body and to serve as checks and balances in the protection and promotion of the rights of the child."

As an independent and neutral entity, it should also complement the functions of other bodies in the government, it said.

It said the commission also acted as a bridge between the government and society, as well as between adults and children on child rights matters, to promote children's participation in society and ensuring that their voices were heard.

Other recommendations were for the commission to have the authority to advocate for children's interests, rights and wellbeing, with the best interests of children at the core of development initiatives in Malaysia.

"It should also be given the power to advocate for policy changes across enforcement agencies and local authorities, and the ability to demand meaningful remedies within defined time frames for children affected by such policies.

"The commission must be involved in the formulation of child-centric national policies, enhancing the quality of care delivered by government agencies while aligning these policies with principles of good governance, thereby serving as a mechanism to assess the government's response to issues affecting children."

It added that the commission should be aligned with the Child Act 2001 and the Convention on the Rights of the Child, paving the way for a brighter and more rights-centric future for children in Malaysia.

Suhakam said it supported the government's move in developing the bill, which was vital in upholding and protecting children's rights.

"The proposed bill is a visionary initiative and an essential cornerstone for the protection of children's rights."

The body said it was imperative for the bill to be crafted as a formidable mechanism.

"This mechanism should reflect international best practices and uphold human rights standards, ensuring sustainable and effective action."

Suhakam said it was ready to assist the government and looked forward to the establishment of an independent commission to serve as a beacon of progress in addressing children's issues.

Wedding joke becomes reality

Woman quipped about taking her last photos – and was killed in crash

SEGAMAT: Norahimah Noor Muhammad, who was killed with her husband and four of their children in a road crash at KMS of Jalan Segamat-Kuantan here, had joked about taking a last photo of herself at her youngest sister's wedding reception in Muar on Aug 27.

Her elder sister, Noorhayati Noor Muhammad, 51, said that was the last time she saw Norahimah.

"We were at our mother's house in Parit Jawa, Muar, for our youngest sister's wedding reception. She was taking some pictures and said they could be her last.

"And yesterday (Friday), she left us. Other than that, there was nothing strange about her action. Norahimah was a cheerful person, but strict," said Noorhayati when met by Bernama at the Forensic Medicine Department of Hospital Segamat yesterday.

On Friday evening, six family members in a multipurpose vehicle (MPV) perished in a five-vehicle pile-up.

The crash occurred while Norahimah and her family, comprising husband Amir Ruddin Ismail, 46, and their children, were on their way home from Ladang Tereh Utara, Kluang, to Felda Kemedak, Segamat.

members were laid to rest at the Ubudiah Islamic Cemetery, Parit Jawa here yesterday.

Noorhayati said she heard about the road crash on the television and from newspapers, but did not have the slightest thought that it involved her own sister and family.

"We were stunned when we found out through messages on WhatsApp that those killed in the crash were my sister, Norahimah, 43, along with her husband and children.

"I'm still in shock. This is the first time any of our family members have died in a road crash. Although she left us in a tragic way, we accept it as fate," she said.

Norahimah, her husband and their three children – Fatimatul-zahrah, 17, Seri Khadijah Aqilah, 13, and Rufaidatul Asyariyah, 10, died at the scene, while a son, five-year-old Muhammad Assyakrawi, died on the way to the hospital.

Another son, Abdullah, 15, is in the intensive care unit of Hospital Segamat. The eldest son, Abdul Rahman, 19, did not join the trip.

The crash occurred at 6.37pm on Friday when a sports utility vehicle (SUV) coming from the direction of Kuantan slowed down due to roadworks, but a trailer behind it failed to stop in time and hit the back of the SUV.

The trailer, laden with sand, then entered the opposite lane and collided with the MPV carrying the family. Two other cars were also involved in the accident.

The trailer driver suffered serious injuries, while the occupants of the SUV and the two cars escaped unhurt.

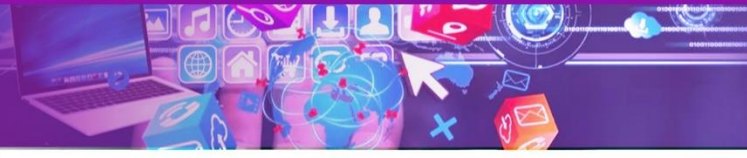

Segamat district police chief Supt Ahmad Zamry Marinsah appealed to those with information on the incident to contact the Segamat Traffic Investigation and Enforcement Division at 07-932 5811.

The case is being investigated under Section 41 (1) of the Road Transport Act 1987.

Premier highlights need for social policy to help senior citizens become more resilient, less vulnerable to scams

By Nur Shazreena Ali
reporters@theborneopost.com

KUCHING: Malaysia needs a social policy that can help improve the resilience of the elderly individuals in times of loneliness or social isolation.

In stating this, Premier Datuk Patinggi Tan Sri Abang Johari Tun Openg says this is crucial in preventing the community, particularly the elderly folks, from falling victim to online scams.

According to him, the elderly individuals who are isolated are more likely to become scam victims.

"From that point of view, we have to plan our social policies so that the community can be resilient from experiencing self-isolation.

"We need to plan a strategy that uses innovative ways to tackle loneliness and reduce the risk of the elderly folks becoming victims of crimes," he said when speaking at the launch of the state-level National Anti-Scam Roadshow at the Borneo Cultures Museum here yesterday.

Communications and Digital Minister Fahmi Fadzil was also present at the event.

Investigation Department (CCID), Abang Johari said a total of 2,461 cases comprising criminal breach of trust (CBT), forgery and online fraud were reported in the state last year, involving total losses of RM63.7 million.

"The highest number of cases involved online scams, comprising 453 cases and incurring total losses of RM2.5 million. The second highest number of cases involved job offer scams with 225 cases and total losses of RM2.9 million, followed by impersonation scams with 183 cases and total losses of RM4.2 million," he said.

In view of this, the Premier said the state government remained committed to implementing digital policies and at the same time, educating the public about them.

MPI grads set up classes for stateless children in Ulu Kapit

SIBU: Two cousins from Long Singgut in Ulu Kapit, who do not have identification cards (IC), have set up classes at their village to enable children who face the same problem obtain some education.

Lili Rudy, 22, who graduated from the Methodist Pilley Institute (MPI) with a Diploma in Social Work, said it was the very least that she could do for the children in her village.

"I do not have an IC. My parents had been fighting for my IC since I was 12 years old.

"I am 22 years old this year, and the fight continues. It is very hard for us.

"One valuable lesson that I have learned personally while doing my diploma at MPI is that I learn to fight for the right, to be the voice for the voiceless," she told reporters when met at the 30th MPI graduation ceremony here yesterday.

Lili established the classes with her cousin Hesty Linggi, 21, about a year ago, but due to various commitments, they could only run them for a month.

However, about two months ago, they reopened the classes teaching Bahasa Malaysia, English and Mathematics.

They called their endeavour 'St Mary's School', as they are using the hall of the Mary Immaculate Conception Church of Long Singgut.

Lili said after Hesty went to Bintulu to run the family's business, she was now operating the classes with the help of two teachers in her village.

"There are about 20 children, aged between seven and 12, attending the classes.

"We cannot do it for free, so in a way, we earn a little bit by charging a minimum fee every month. Not much, but enough for us to get by," she said.

Lili and Hesty are the outcome of the collaboration between the MPI and the Catholic Church that co-sponsored their studies at MPI in Diploma in Social Work.

According to Lili, she and Hesty are among the 300 people in her village who do not have ICs.

"I consider myself fortunate that I was able to finish my study until SPM level, and now I have received my diploma.

"However, I do hope that I could get my IC soon and hopefully, land a government job, because for now I cannot apply for any jobs despite having a diploma.

"It really made me sad thinking about it, but I do hope that I would get the IC and I pray the same for the children in my village who are facing the same problem," she said, adding that she had been to the National Registration Department many times to apply for her IC.

Both of her parents only have a green card each.

Speaking at the graduation ceremony, MPI principal Hii King Kai also called upon the government to simplify and expedite the verification and approval of the citizenship status of stateless Sarawakians.

He said both Lili and Hesty, despite being born and raised in Sarawak, are still without the blue ICs, leaving them unable to open bank accounts, apply for a passport, or even register for post-paid mobile phone services.

Hii also called upon the federal government to expedite the passing of the Social Workers Professional Act, which was first drafted in 2012, but still pending approval in Parliament.

"The passing of the Social Workers Professional Act would elevate the status of the individuals who run our country's many social welfare programmes, allowing them to be seen as professionals and making the management of social work in Malaysia more efficient," said the MPI principal.

A total of 186 MPI students received their diplomas and degrees yesterday, and another seven received their Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) certificates.

Also present were MPI vice chairman Dr Peter Tang and honorary chairman Hii Ching Chiong.
