Alor Setar

“S ebelum ini anak perempuan saya membantu menguruskan isteri, Marina Zain, 45, sejak dia disahkan menghidap ketumbuhan otak Jun lalu. Namun anak diharapkan itu pula meninggal dunia akibat menghidap Systemic Lupus Erythematosus (SLE),” kata Zulkefly Ariffin, 48.

Dia berkata, anaknya, Nur Wardina Zulkefly, 17, meninggal dunia 10 hari lalu dan sejak itu dia mengambil alih tugas menjaga isteri sepenuhnya.

Menurut Zulkefly, selain menghidap ketumbuhan di otak, Marina turut menghidap penyakit jantung, sakit lutut, tiroid dan kencing manis.

Katanya, dia yang bekerja sebagai pengawal keselamatan hanya mampu menguruskan isteri sebelum dan selepas pulang bekerja setiap hari.

“Isteri tak boleh banyak bergerak berikutan keadaan kesihatannya tidak menentu dan ditambah pula ada penyakit jantung.

“Kami ada dua lagi anak iaitu anak sulung berusia 20 tahun dan seorang lagi berusia 11 tahun. Anak sulung sanggup berhenti kerja beberapa hari lalu untuk menjaga ibu,” ka-

tanya ketika ditemui di Taman Seri Bagan, Tandop, di sini, semalam

Menurut Zulkefly, Marina perlu menjalani rawatan susulan di Hospital Sultanah Bahiyah (HSB) dan setakat ini hanya menjalani rawatan pengimejan resonans magnet (MRI).

Katanya, isterinya kini hanya bergantung pada ubat diberi doktor kerana kerap sakit kepala pada waktu malam.

“Selain itu, isteri tidak berselera makan dan hanya bergantung pada susu formula khas untuk kencing manis bagi menambahkan tenaga.

“Bagaimanapun, susu khas itu agak mahal dan saya perlu bekerja untuk menampung kos berkenaan,” katanya.

Sehubungan itu, orang ramai yang ingin menghulurkan sumbangan boleh berbuat demikian melalui akaun Maybank 152170210092 atau menghubunginya di talian 016-5352020.

Sementara itu, Pengerusi Cancer Survivors Malaysia (CSM), Zuraini Kamal yang mengunjungi pesakit itu menyerahkan sumbangan wang tunai serta barangan keperluan dapur.

Selain itu, Zuraini turut memberi sokongan kepada Marina supaya meneruskan rawatan dan berjuang melawan penyakit dihidapinya itu.

KPWKM tunggu laporan penuh

Serdang: Kementerian Pembangunan Wanita, Keluarga dan Masyarakat (KPWKM) sedang menunggu laporan penuh polis berhubung insiden kanak-kanak berusia tiga tahun patah kaki kiri dan cedera di mulut akibat di-campak dari tingkat satu sebuah pangsapuri di Pulau Pinang oleh bapa saudaranya, kelmarin.

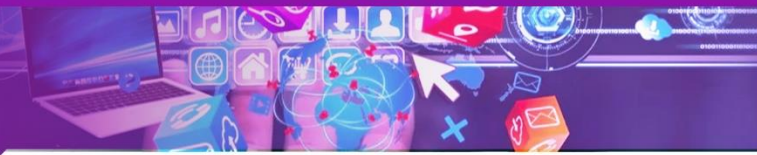

Menteri Pembangunan Wanita, Keluarga dan Masyarakat Datuk Seri Nancy Shukri berkata, pihaknya akan mengambil tindakan sewajarnya selepas mendapat laporan pihak berkuasa itu.

“Kami baru sahaja terima maklumat berhubung kes terbabit dan difahamkan ia dalam proses siasatan.

“Kami perlu menunggu laporan penuh berhubung insiden itu sebelum tindakan susulan dan sewajarnya diambil oleh kementerian,” katanya pada sidang media selepas perasmian Program Jerayawara Kasih KPWKM@Advokasi Anti Gangguan Seksual di Malaysia Agro Exposition Park Serdang (MAEPS), di sini, semalam.

Dalam kejadian itu, adik mangsa berusia 40 bulan turut mengalami pendarahan di kepala selepas dihempas ke lantai oleh bapa saudaranya di sebuah pangsapuri di Sungai Pinang, Pulau Pinang, semalam.

Polis menyiasat kes itu mengikut Seksyen 307 Kanun Keseksaan kerana cubaan bunuh.

Baby, sister allegedly injured by uncle

GEORGE TOWN: A 40-day-old baby suffered injuries to her head when she was believed to have been thrown on the floor by her uncle, 29, at an apartment unit in Sungai Pinang.

Her elder sister, aged 3, suffered a broken leg and bleeding from her mouth when the same uncle allegedly threw her from the first floor of the apartment building.

The suspect later slit his right wrist.

Another of the girls' uncles said he had heard his mother screaming for help at 3.40pm.

When he went to see what was going on, he found his younger brother, the suspect, naked and bleeding profusely.

He said a neighbour helped him calm his brother down.

"Other family members took my elder sister's two children to the hospital.

"My brother said he had heard 'whispers' before he harmed the children.

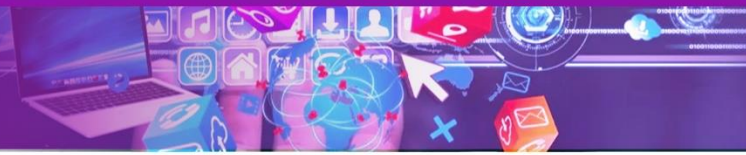

"We hope people understand and respect the family's request for privacy.

"The suspect is my brother and has been undergoing traditional treatment due to health issues over the past two months."

It is understood that the children had been staying at the apartment, which belongs to their grandmother, because their mother was in confinement.

Northeast police chief Assistant Commissioner Soffian Santong confirmed the incident.

"The case is being investigated for attempted murder."

Man who allegedly set wife on fire arrested

TASEK GELUGOR: The man who allegedly set his wife on fire in an oil palm estate here on Monday has been arrested.

Seberang Prai Utara police chief Assistant Commissioner Mohd Asri Shafie said the man was detained in Nibong Tebal yesterday.

“He will be taken to court tomorrow for remand.”

Eyewitnesses told police on Wednesday that the man was seen leaving the plantation and getting into a factory van.

It was reported that a man, 36, allegedly set his wife, 35, on fire using petrol in a house in the oil palm estate, believed to be over a misunderstanding.

The couple’s son, 13, who was in his room, overheard a fight between his parents. He tried to go out of the room but the door was latched shut from the outside.

When he did manage to come out, he saw his mother on fire at the back of the house while his father was trying to put out the flames.

When the fire grew bigger, the father fled. The son put out the fire with water before calling the neighbours for help.

The victim sustained second- and third-degree burns. She is at the intensive care unit of Penang Hospital.

The case is being investigated for voluntarily causing grievous hurt by dangerous weapons or means.

Safe pregnancy, healthy baby

THE birth of a child is a remarkable experience, filled with joy, anticipation, and a sense of responsibility.

During this transformative journey, expectant mothers require comprehensive care that caters to their physical, emotional and psychological wellbeing.

Antenatal services play a pivotal role in ensuring a healthy pregnancy and a positive birth experience, not only for the mother and baby, but also her spouse and extended family.

These services are designed to support women throughout this special phase of life and aim to monitor the mother and the growing life in her womb; to identify and address potential risks or complications; and provide guidance and education for a smooth journey to motherhood.

KPJ Puteri Specialist Hospital consultant obstetrician and gynaecologist Dr Laila Shikh A. Rahman says the first step towards optimal prenatal care begins with finding a trusted healthcare provider — an obstetrician, general practitioner or community healthcare provider.

These professionals form the cornerstone of a woman's journey, providing expert guidance, routine check-ups and personalised care tailored to her needs.

"Regular prenatal visits establish a strong foundation for monitoring the development of the foetus, tracking the mother's health and addressing concerns."

COMPLETE CARE

It also includes nutritional counselling to ensure nourishment for mother and baby, as well as guidance on exercise, rest and stress management techniques. Breastfeeding counselling and support is also included.

Education on avoiding harmful substances such as tobacco, alcohol and certain medications is also crucial as these can have detrimental effects on the foetus.

"It is recommended that pregnant women start antenatal care as soon as they know they are pregnant. Besides providing early prevention and management of existing and potential causes of maternal morbidity and mortality, it allows early ultrasounds to be done."

A safe pregnancy and a healthy baby begins with proper care for both.

Dr Laila says early sonography can confirm if the pregnancy is at the right place, in the womb and not elsewhere, and enable accurate dating of the age of the pregnancy and expected delivery date.

It also provides early and accurate identification of whether it's a multiple pregnancy (such as twins) and enables optimal intervention should the pregnancy turn out to be multiple.

"With proper care and nine months of love, a lifetime of happiness belongs to you."

Court to decide Sept 26 if man charged with murdering pregnant woman to undergo mental evaluation

SUNGAI BESAR: The lawyer representing a 20-year-old man accused of murdering a pregnant woman in May applied to the Magistrate's Court here yesterday for his client to be referred to a psychiatric hospital.

Muhammad Nor Tamrin, representing accused Muhammad Fakrul Aiman Sajali, told the court that based on the interviews conducted, his client appeared not to be in a stable mental condition.

Deputy Public Prosecutor Muhammad Afiq Qiwanuddin Mustapha Shakri had no objections to the application.

"I leave it to the court, on whether to order the evaluation at this stage (Magistrate's Court) or if it is something that should be decided if and when it goes to trial (High Court)," Muhammad Afiq Qiwanuddin said.

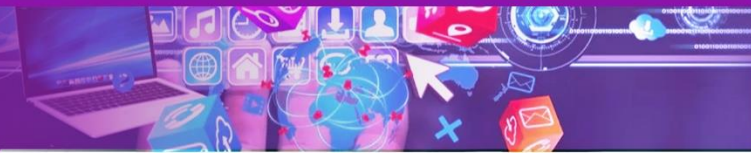

Magistrate Siti Hajar Ali fixed Sept 26 for a decision on the application.

On June 1, Muhammad Fakrul Aiman was charged with the murder of 21-year-old Nur Anisah Abdul Wahab in Jalan Sungai Limau here, between 8.30pm on May 22 and 8am the following day.

The offence, under Section 302 of the Penal Code, is punishable by the death penalty, if convicted.

The media prior to this had reported that an argument to conceal an out-of-wedlock pregnancy led to the brutal murder of a restaurant worker, who was stabbed and slashed in the stomach by her boyfriend at an oil palm plantation in Jalan Sungai Limau, here, on May 22.

Her remains were later burnt.

Kemas SibU empowers women to improve family economy

SIBU: The Community Development Department (Kemas) SibU recently held a three-day basic culinary course on seasoning skills for the longhouse community in Tanjung Bekakap.

Some 15 participants took part in the basic culinary course held at the family welfare education class (PKK) in Tanjung Bekakap here from Aug 1 to 3.

The course was conducted by Community Development for Skill Education senior assistant Suriani Harry, and PKK community development personnel Fioveena Debra Ingkan Donald.

Throughout the three-day course, participants explored flavour combinations and were given hands-on experience in preparing various types of 'sambal', grilled dishes and 'rojak', among others.

Speaking at the closing of the course, Kemas Community and Skills assistant officer Jinah Mukil said the short-course aimed at upgrading current knowledge skills among the rural population. She expressed hope that the participants would utilise the knowledge gained during the course to generate income for their families.

"With the acquired knowledge, participants can venture into entrepreneurship and gain extra income," she said.

Course participant Karmila Galau, meanwhile, thanked Kemas for organising the course which she deemed was beneficial for knowledge and exposure, as well as to help improve family economy.

Rescuers find Baleh man who disappeared on return from frog hunt

KAPIT: Search and rescue (SAR) team members on Wednesday found a man who went missing Monday while returning from a frog hunt.

Nyipa Ajang, 68, from Rumah Bangkong, Nanga Sabala, Sungai Mujong was discovered safe around 4km from where he and his nephew took a rest before beginning their hunt for frogs along the river.

SAR team members handed him over to the police, who later brought him back to his longhouse.

When contacted, Kapit Fire and Rescue Department (Bomba) officer Timothy Barat thanked all those involved in the SAR operation on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Led by Bomba officer Budiman Sabia, the SAR team consisted of firefighters, police, Civil Defence Force personnel, and longhouse folks.

On Sunday afternoon, Nyipa and his nephew had gone to catch frogs along Sungai Mujong.

During their two-hour journey home through the jungle on Monday morning, Nyipa, who was following behind his nephew, somehow went missing.

Two women lose over RM1 mln to investment scams

SEREMBAN: Two women reported losses of over RM1 million to non-existent investments that falsely promised high profits, subsequent to their involvement with fake investment companies in March 2023 and June 2020.

Negeri Sembilan police chief Datuk Ahmad Dzaffir Mohd Yussof said they received a report three days ago from a 44-year-old woman who claimed to have seen a TikTok account offering gold investments in March.

"The interested victim messaged the account holder, who informed her about the investment's substantial returns in US Dollars.

Later, she deposited RM621,800 into a single bank account through 27 transactions.

"The victim claimed to receive only RM20,000 and no additional profits after that," Ahmad Dzaffir said in a statement yesterday.

Meanwhile, he said the second victim was a 63-year-old woman who was introduced to an investment company based in Kuala Lumpur by her sibling in June 2020.

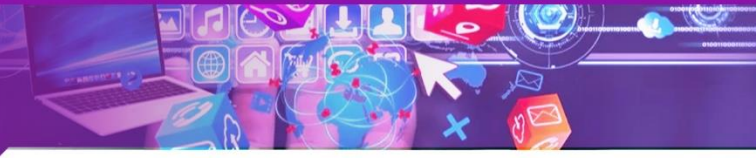

Ahmad Dzaffir said the victim was promised profits of between 15 and 17 per cent over three years, leading the woman to pay a total of RM500,000 within six months since July 3, 2020.

"The victim claimed to receive RM6,250 in profits, but she later realised that the company had closed and stopped delivering the promised profits," he added.

The cases are being investigated under Section 420 of the Penal Code.

Ahmad Dzaffir advised the public to be cautious about high-profit investments and suggested verifying the companies' registration with the Securities Commission or Bank Negara Malaysia. — Bernama

'Help us trace assaulted woman from viral video'

KUALA LUMPUR: The MCA and Malaysia Crime Prevention Foundation (MCPF) are seeking assistance in locating a woman who was assaulted by a group, as depicted in a widely circulated video.

MCA Public Services and Complaints Department head Datuk Seri Michael Chong said quick action is necessary as the victim may be in grave danger.

"I believe that this girl might have been forced into vice. As soon as the video went viral, the group that was seen assaulting her could attempt to shut her up permanently," he told reporters at Wisma MCA here yesterday.

He said several people had contacted his department to step in because they felt the assault was too brutal.

"While some had assumed that the motive for the attack might be due to jealousy, I believe she could have been forced into vice after she ran away from home.

"Just have a look at the video; even while the girl was being beaten, she can be heard apologising," he said, adding that two men and two women were seen attacking her.

According to reports, a video

Public appeal: Chong urging witnesses to come forward with information on the girl who was brutally assaulted in a viral video. With him are Lim (left) and Chan. — AZMAN GHANI/The Star depicting a girl being physically attacked was uploaded on Facebook.

On July 30, around 10pm, the police received a report from a 51-year-old local man. He claimed that the girl who was assaulted in the viral video was his daughter.

The 24-year-old victim is said to have left her home in George Town last December due to family issues.

Since that time, the girl has not returned home and her family has been unable to contact her.

George Town OCPD Asst Comm Soffian Santong confirmed that the case is being investigated. The police have yet to determine the location of the incident.

Also present at the press conference were MCPF vice-chairman Datuk Seri Dr Lim Chin Fui and MCPF Melaka chairman Edison Chan.

Chong urged those with information to contact the MCPF hotline at 03-2181 0055 or his department at 03-2203 3888. He appealed to anyone mistreating the girl to cease their actions immediately.

Two women lose a total RM1.12mil to investment scams

SEREMBAN: Two women lost a total of RM1.12mil in investment schemes which had promised unusually high returns, says state police chief Deputy Comm Datuk Ahmad Dzaffir Mohd Yusoff.

In the first case, he said a 44-year-old woman in Bahau near here lost RM621,800 after putting her money in a gold investment scheme which was supposed to give lucrative returns in US dollars.

The woman, a private sector employee, came across the scheme on TikTok in March and contacted the person in charge.

"She was asked to check a website for more details and then told to bank in the amount she wished to invest into different accounts.

"Subsequently, she transferred the money via 27 transactions. She received an initial profit of RM20,000 but she didn't get any after that," he said in a statement.

DCP Ahmad Dzaffir said the second victim, a 63-year-old woman, lost RM500,000 after investing her money with a company in Kuala Lumpur in June 2020.

Her relative had told her about the investment scheme.

"She decided to invest after she was told that the company would give her returns of between 15% and 17% a month for three years.

"For the following six months, she received RM6,250 a month but the payment stopped after that," he said.

He said the woman eventually found out that the company had ceased operations when she went to Kuala Lumpur to meet its officers.

Both the victims lodged reports separately on Tuesday.

DCP Ahmad Dzaffir advised the public to exercise caution when investing their money online, especially with schemes which supposedly offer unusually high returns or when they are asked to send their funds into individual accounts.

"Please verify the status of companies which provide these so-called investments with Bank Negara or the Securities Commission," he said.

Both cases are being probed under Section 420 of the Penal Code for cheating.

Woman recalls horror of man taking upskirt photo

KOTA DAMANSARA: An insurance agent felt a tap on her calf while on an escalator and was horrified when she looked back and saw a man pulling out a mobile phone from under her skirt.

Recalling the ordeal which occurred on Tuesday, the woman, 35, said she was headed to a specialist medical centre here when the incident occurred.

“I parked my car at the basement car park and took the escalator because I wanted to collect a medical report.

“I was on my way up on the escalator when I felt a very slight touch on my right calf, and I immediately turned behind to check. To my horror, I saw a man withdrawing his phone from under my dress,” she said yesterday.

The woman said she immediately screamed at the man and he denied any wrongdoing before he ran off.

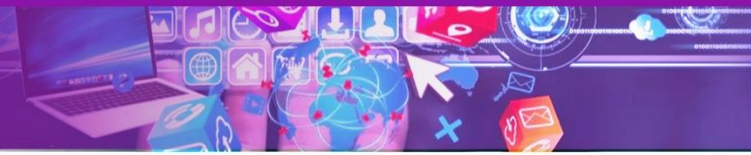

She then went to the management office to get the CCTV footage of the incident. However, she could not get any footage from the car park as it was managed by a different management company and they would not cooperate.

She said she then went to the Kota Damansara police station and lodged a report.

“The reason I want to bring attention to this incident is so that the culprit does not get away with it. I also hope that the parking management would be more cooperative with the police in tracing the whereabouts of the suspect,” she said.

Petaling Jaya OCPD Asst Comm Mohamad Fakhruddin Abdul Hamid confirmed the report, urging anyone with information on the case to contact the police hotline at 03-2052 9999 or go to the nearest police station.
