Sindiket berjaya yakinkan mangsa terbabit dadah, pengubahan wang haram

Ipoh: Seorang pesara wanita mendakwa kerugian hampir RM1.4 juta akibat terpedaya penipuan panggilan telefon atau 'phone scam' oleh individu menyamar pegawai polis dan wakil syarikat penghantar.

Selain wang tunai, warga emas berusia 62 tahun itu mendakwa kerugian dalam bentuk mata wang kripto selepas mula dihubungi suspek sejak tiga tahun lalu.

Ketua Polis Perak, Datuk Seri Mohd Yusri Hassan Basri berkata, berdasarkan laporan dibuat semalam, mangsa mendakwa terpedaya selepas panggilan telefon mula diterima pada 27 Mac 2020 daripada suspek yang memperkenalkan diri sebagai pekerja syarikat kurier yang mendakwa mangsa mempunyai bungkusan bermasalah.

Menyamar polis

Katanya, mangsa diminta membuat pengesahan apabila diberikan nombor telefon palsu kononnya dari Ibu Pejabat Polis Kontinjen (IPK) Sabah, sebelum dimaklumkan suspek lain yang menyamar 'pegawai polis' kononnya turut terbabit jenayah pengubahan wang haram dan dadah.

"Mangsa mempercayai cerita suspek apabila ditunjukkan dokumen kononnya waran tangkap yang dikeluarkan mahkamah atas namanya.

"Sepanjang urusan, pengadu (mangsa) dengan 'IPK Sabah' mengenai kes 'jenayah' itu, mangsa berkomunikasi dengan lima suspek berlainan yang menyamar sebagai pegawai polis dalam perwatakan berlainan.

"Mangsa juga mendedahkan semua maklumat sulit mengenai akaun bank dan akaun dompet digital (e-wallet) kepada semua suspek serta mengikuti arahan suspek untuk membuat pemindahan wang ke pelbagai akaun bank milik individu lain," katanya dalam kenyataan semalam.

WANITA BERSUAMI DUA

'Tidak pernah ceraikan dia!'

Tanah Merah

Tindakan seorang wanita 'memadukan' suaminya terbongkar apabila perkahwinan kedua wanita terbabit dengan lelaki lain diketahui suami pertama.

Peniaga, Rahaman Mohamed Jaafar, 47, mendedahkan dia berkahwin dengan isterinya berusia 32 tahun di Narathiwat, Thailand pada Januari 2019, sebelum wanita itu didapati menghilangkan diri, Januari lalu.

Menurutnya, perkahwinan mereka disahkan cukup syarat dan mengikut hukum syarak oleh Mahkamah Rendah Syariah Tanah Merah pada 6 Jun lalu sebelum didaftarkan di Pejabat Agama Jajahan Tanah Merah.

"Selepas kehilangan isteri pada Januari lalu, saya mendapat tahu di media sosial pada April lalu bahawa isteri saya akan berkahwin. Perkara itu mengejutkan kerana saya tidak pernah menceraikannya dan kami masih suami isteri.

"Selepas membuat semakan, saya mendapati isteri ada membuat permohonan untuk berkahwin dengan lelaki lain berusia 42 tahun di Pejabat Agama Besut, Terengganu pada April lalu dipercayai menggunakan surat cerai dengan suami terdahulu iaitu sebelum berkahwin dengan saya," katanya ketika ditemui di sini, semalam.

Mengulas lanjut, Rahaman berkata, susulan mengetahui 'dimadukan' isterinya, dia memfailkan tuntutan faraq nikah di antara isterinya dengan suami kedua.

"Susulan itu, Mahkamah Tinggi Syariah Kota Bharu pada Ogos lalu membuat keputusan memerintahkan isteri saya selaku defendan pertama dan suami keduanya yang juga defendan kedua difaraqkan sementara.

"Mereka tidak dibenarkan tinggal bersama sebagai suami isteri sehingga kes kami selesai dibicarakan," katanya.

Terdahulu, Rahaman hadir di Mahkamah Rendah Syariah Tanah Merah di sini, semalam untuk prosiding keputusan lafaz cerai talak tiga yang difailkan isterinya.

Hakim Ahmad Hariri Mohd Saat kemudian memberi tempoh 14 hari kepada Rahaman untuk membuat sumpah laknat bagi menafikan dakwaan isterinya.

Rahaman yang diwakili peguam Marzuqi Muhamad menegaskan dia tidak pernah membuat lafaz cerai terhadap isterinya seperti didakwa dan sehingga kini mereka masih suami isteri.

"Saya sangat kecewa dengan tindakan isteri. Empat tahun kami berkahwin, baru beberapa bulan saya mendapat sijil nikah, akhirnya saya pula 'dimadukan'.

"Saya percaya pejabat agama mengeluarkan kebenaran berkahwin terhadap isteri saya dengan suami keduanya kerana perkahwinan kami di luar negara masih dalam proses pengesahan di sini (Kelantan)," katanya.

RAHAMAN dedahkan dia berkahwin dengan isterinya berusia 32 tahun di Narathiwat, Thailand pada Januari 2019.

KES ROGOL BERAMAI-RAMAI

3 lelaki tidak mengaku salah

Oleh Suraya Roslan
surayaroslan@mediaprima.com.my

Kuala Lumpur

Tiga lelaki termasuk dua beradik, mengaku tidak bersalah di Mahkamah Sesyen di sini, semalam atas tuduhan merogol wanita yang juga adik ipar rakan mereka secara bergilir-gilir di sebuah rumah, bulan lalu.

Bagaimanapun, Nik Mohammad Rahimin Mat Zaid, 33, dan adiknya, Nik Khaira Hafizi Mat Zaid, 28, serta rakan mereka, Mohd Zulhilmi Zainuddin, 33, mengaku tidak bersalah sebaik pertuduhan dibacakan jurubahasa mahkamah di hadapan Hakim Norina Zainol Abidin.

Mengikut pertuduhan, Nik Mohammad Rahimin yang juga mekanik dan dua lagi tertuduh yang bekerja di kedai makan didakwa bersama-sama dengan sengaja melakukan kesalahan merogol ke atas seorang wanita berusia 26 tahun.

Kesalahan itu dilakukan di sebuah kediaman di Wangsa Maju antara jam 2 pagi dan 3.30 pagi, 30 Ogos lalu.

Mereka didakwa mengikut Seksyen 376(1) Kanun Keseksaan yang boleh dihukum penjara sehingga 30 tahun serta sebatan dan dibaca bersama-sama seksyen 34 kanun yang sama.

Susulan pengakuan tidak bersalah berkenaan, Timbalan Pendakwa Raya Noorhani Muhmmed Ayub tidak menawarkan dan membantah sebarang jaminan diberikan kepada tertuduh.

"Pendakwaan tidak membenarkan jaminan kerana ia kes serius membabitkan rogol berkumpulan oleh tiga tertuduh.

"Kalau diberi jaminan, tertuduh kemungkinan tidak hadir ke mahkamah. Mengikut siasatan polis, ketiga-tiga tertuduh rakan kepada abang ipar mangsa," katanya.

Namun, semua tertuduh terbabit yang tidak diwakili peguam merayu supaya diberikan jaminan masing-masing atas alasan perlu menanggung isteri serta anak berusia antara enam bulan hingga 12 tahun.

Norina kemudian tidak membenarkan sebarang jaminan dan menetapkan 12 Oktober ini untuk sebutan semula kes bagi serahan dokumen serta lantikan peguam.

Pada Jumaat lalu, seorang bapa empat anak didakwa di Mahkamah Sesyen di sini, kerana bersubahat dengan membenarkan sekumpulan rakan merogol adik iparnya.

Bagaimanapun, penganggur berusia 29 tahun itu tidak mengaku bersalah sejurus pertuduhan dikemukakan di hadapan Hakim Izralizam Sanusi.

Pada 5 September lalu, media melaporkan, faktor melangsaikan hutang dipercayai mendorong lelaki membenarkan rakan merogol adik iparnya bergilir-gilir di kediaman di Wangsa Maju.

Ketua Polis Daerah Wangsa Maju Superintendan Ashari Abu Samah dipetik berkata, siasatan polis mendapati, abang ipar mangsa berusia 29 tahun itu berhutang dengan seorang suspek yang masih bebas.

Sebelum ini, mangsa yang sedang tidur dikatakan 'diserang' lima lelaki sebelum diperkosa secara bergilir-gilir dalam kejadian jam 3.30 pagi, 30 Ogos lalu.

Wanita itu diikat tangan dan mulutnya ditutup dengan pita pelekat oleh suspek yang turut merakam kejadian terbabit.

Farmer gets 18 years' jail, 10 lashes for raping teenage daughter

TAWAU: The Sessions Court here sentenced a farmer to 18 years in prison yesterday for raping his 14-year-old daughter.

The 58-year-old illegal immigrant was ordered to receive 10 strokes of the rotan after pleading guilty before judge Rosli Ahmad.

The father of nine was accused of raping his 14-year-old daughter in a house in Pulau Bait, Semporna, about 11pm on Feb 11.

He was charged under Section 376(3) of the Penal Code, which carries a maximum prison sentence of 30 years and a minimum of 10 strokes of the rotan, upon conviction.

Deputy public prosecutor Mohd Syahnidzam Ahmad asked the court to impose a heavy sentence, taking into account the public interest factor in addition to the seriousness of the case that involved a minor.

"This incident has also caused serious long-term trauma to the victim and for that reason, we request a severe punishment as a lesson not only to the accused but also to the general public," he said.

The accused had, on Feb 27, been sentenced to six months in prison for an offence under Section 6 (1)(1) of the Immigration Act 1959/63.

The court, however, ordered the imprisonment and whipping for rape to run concurrently from the date of arrest on Feb 12.

The accused will also be referred to the Immigration Department for deportation once he has completed his sentence.

THREE CLAIM TRIAL TO GANG-RAPE

Brothers and friend charged with raping another friend's sister-in-law

KUALA LUMPUR
rahmat@nst.com.my

THREE men, two of whom are brothers, were charged at the Sessions Court here with gang-raping their friend's sister-in-law two weeks ago, purportedly over a debt.

Mohd Zulhilmi Zainuddin, Nik Mohammad Rahimin Mat Zaid, both 33, and the latter's brother, Nik Khaira Hafizi, 28, pleaded not guilty to the charge read before judge Norina Zainol Abidin.

Previously, the brother-in-law of the victim had been charged over the gang-rape, the result of a debt he owed to another man still at large.

The brother-in-law was said to have allowed the rape as repayment of the debt.

The three were charged with raping the 26-year-old woman in a house near Wangsa Maju, between 2am and 3.30am on Aug 30.

The offence falls under Section 376(1) of the Penal Code, read together with Section 34, which provides for imprisonment of up to 20 years and whipping upon conviction.

Deputy public prosecutor Noorhani Muhmmed Ayub did not offer bail to the accused.

"This is a serious case involving gang-rape by the three accused.

"If bail is granted, they may not appear in court. Police investigations also revealed that all of them are friends of the victim's brother-in-law," she said.

The accused, who were unrepresented, pleaded for minimum bail, stating that they had to support their children aged between 6 months and 12 years.

However, the court did not offer bail and fixed Oct 12 for mention.

On Friday, the victim's brother-in-law was charged with conspiring with an accomplice to gang-rape his sister-in-law repeatedly in a house.

The father of four, however, pleaded not guilty to the charges read before judge Izralizam Sanusi.

Earlier, it was reported that the desire to settle his debt to a friend was believed to be what led the man to allow his friends to rape his sister-in-law repeatedly at their residence in Wangsa Maju.

Wangsa Maju police chief Superintendent Ashari Abu Samah said investigations showed that the victim's 29-year-old brother-in-law was in debt to one of the suspects, who is still at large.

He said before the incident, the man contacted the 26-year-old victim and asked her not to lock the house door, which resulted in her being attacked as she slept.

Her hands were tied and she was gagged before being raped. Her attackers also recorded a video of the assault.

WOMEN-ONLY COACH A RIGHT MOVE

Having women-only coaches causes a capacity problem, but women should not be blamed for this. FILE PIC

A STUDY by All Women's Action Society (Awam) and Cent-GPS last year showed that a majority of women felt unsafe in public.

About 57 per cent of respondents said they had experienced verbal sexual harassment when walking in public, while 25 per cent said they had been stalked all the way home.

With these statistics and data, it is understandable that the government wants to make women feel safe while taking public transport.

Therefore, I welcome the government's initiative to introduce women-only coaches on the MRT Kajang line as a solution to the safety issue they have been experiencing.

Last month, a woman was assaulted on a train platform. It is thus very disappointing and upsetting to see comments severely criticising this initiative. Worse still, they openly blame women.

Some claim that the initiative is a "Western feminist agenda", while some say men, too, get sexually harassed while using public transport.

It is worth understanding why there is pushback to this initiative. The main point is capacity, as the MRT is operating with a limited number of coaches.

Having a women-only coach may reduce the capacity, especially as men will have to get on the regular coaches. This initiative has been framed as the wrong solution to a valid problem.

It is unsurprising that many negative comments come from young men, as they may not be able to imagine the fear and anxiety women experience in certain situations.

A study by ThinkCity in 2021 on women's safety in Downtown Kuala Lumpur found that 27 per cent of women felt unsafe in public spaces, while only nine per cent of men felt the same way.

The study also found that women felt unsafe taking public transport at night and would opt for e-hailing to go home. While taking an e-hailing ride home isn't totally safe either, for the women who were interviewed, it felt like the far safer option.

This is why when the government announced the women-only coach initiative a few months ago, I was relieved.

Having experienced sexual harassment multiple times throughout my life and a few times on public transport (such as being filmed without consent, being followed and unwanted touching), I appreciate this initiative.

I understand there is a capacity problem, but why are women being attacked for this?

The detractors are attacking the wrong people. The unsafe feeling we experience is very real and we are grateful that the government recognises this.

Is this the perfect solution? No. But is it a step in the right direction? Yes.

Perak senior citizen loses RM1.4 million to phone scam

IPOH: A 62-year-old woman was cheated out of RM1.4 million when she fell prey to a syndicate posing as courier company staff and police officers, three years ago.

Perak police chief Datuk Seri Mohd Yusri Hassan Basri said the victim only lodged a police report on Tuesday.

"On March 27, 2020, the complainant received a phone call from an unknown individual claiming to be a courier company staff, saying there was a parcel for her but there was a problem with it.

"She then made a verification through a fake 'Sabah contingent police headquarters' phone number which was provided by the caller, and was informed by a 'police officer' that she was implicated in a money laundering and drug case," he said in a statement yesterday.

He said she was shown a court arrest warrant in her name and during the three years she was in communication with five individuals impersonating various 'police officers'.

Mohd Yusri said the victim revealed all confidential information about her bank accounts and digital wallets to the suspects and followed their instructions to transfer funds to a number of bank accounts under other individuals' names.

"She only realised she had been cheated after waiting all this time, since 2020, for one of the suspects to meet her in Ipoh," he said.

He said the case is being investigated under Section 420 of the Penal Code and advised the public to be wary of suspicious phone calls, especially those claiming to be from a government agency. — Bernama

Civil servant loses RM600,000 to phone scam syndicate

By ANDY CHUA

SIBU: A woman here was fleeced of nearly RM600,000 in a phone scam.

The 40-year-old civil servant lodged a report on Sept 12 claiming she had been cheated by a phone scam syndicate, says Sarawak Commissioner of Police Datuk Mohd Azman Sapri.

"In early August, the woman received a call from a man who claimed to be from a courier company in Perak. The suspect told her she had sent a parcel which contained several identity cards," he said in a statement.

When the woman denied it, the line was connected to a so-called Perak police station chief who scolded her for not cooperating with them.

"After that she received a message in her WhatsApp from another suspect who informed her that she was involved in money laundering," he added.

Azman said as the victim panicked, she followed all instructions from the suspect.

She was also advised not to reveal anything to anyone.

She transferred RM20,000 to two accounts supposedly for "Bank Negara auditing".

Soon after that she was asked to deposit more money.

"She took out her savings and also secured bank loans, all totalling RM580,000. The money was transferred to five different bank accounts," he said.

The woman realised she had been conned when the suspects could no longer be contacted.

The case is being investigated under Section 420 of the Penal Code for cheating.

Retiree duped of RM1.4mil

Woman only realised she was scammed three years later

IPOH: A 62-year-old retiree has been waiting to meet an "assistant superintendent of police" whom she gave RM1.4mil to in 2020, not realising it was a phone scam.

The woman from Taman Wah Keong here only realised she had been cheated after failing to meet face-to-face with the so-called police officer after three years.

The woman, who used to work in Singapore, received a call from a stranger who claimed to be from a courier service company on March 27, 2020.

Perak police chief Comm Datuk Seri Mohd Yusof Hassan Basri said the woman was informed about an issue with a parcel for her.

"The scammer gave the woman a contact number, purportedly to be of the Sabah police so she could verify the matter herself.

"The victim called the number given and was accused by 'police officers' of being involved in money laundering and drugs," he said in a statement yesterday.

"The scammer also claimed that an arrest warrant has been issued for her," he said, adding the victim had communicated with five suspects.

"She revealed all her personal banking and e-wallet details to the scammers. She also followed instructions to transfer money from her bank account to several others.

"This went on until April 21, 2020," he added.

"The victim had believed that a 'police assistant superintendent' she was in contact with was real and had been waiting to meet with him in Ipoh since 2020.

"Having lost her patience, the woman lodged a report on Tuesday," he said.

"The woman lost about RM1.4mil, including cryptocurrency," he said.

The case is being investigated under Section 420 of the Penal Code.

Wanita warga emas kerugian RM1.4 juta terperdaya 'phone scam'

IPOH: Seorang wanita warga emas menjadi mangsa terbaharu 'phone scam' di Perak apabila kerugian sebanyak RM1.4 juta selepas terperdaya dengan taktik penyamaran sebagai pekerja syarikat kurier dan pegawai polis sejak tiga tahun lalu.

Ketua Polis Perak Datuk Seri Mohd Yusri Hassan Basri berkata pihaknya menerima laporan daripada mangsa berusia 62 tahun yang berasal dari Taman Wah Keong di sini kelmarin.

"Pada 27 Mac 2020, pengadu menerima panggilan telefon daripada individu tidak dikenali memperkenalkan diri sebagai pekerja syarikat kurier dan menipu bahawa pengadu mempunyai bungkusan yang bermasalah.

"Pengadu kemudian membuat pengesahan kepada nombor telefon palsu 'Ibu Pejabat Polis Kontinjen Sabah' yang diberikan oleh 'pekerja syarikat kurier' dan dimaklumkan oleh seorang 'pegawai polis' kononnya pengadu terlibat dalam kes jenayah penggubahan wang haram dan dadah," katanya dalam kenyataan di sini semalam.

Beliau berkata pengadu ditunjukkan dokumen waran tangkap mahkamah atas namanya daripada suspek sehingga dia mempercayai percakapan suspek dan sepanjang urusan itu, mangsa telah berkomunikasi dengan lima orang yang menyamar sebagai pegawai polis dengan perwatakan berlainan.

Mohd Yusri berkata pengadu telah mendedahkan semua maklumat sulit tentang akaun bank dan akaun dompet digital kepada kesemua suspek serta mengikut arahan membuat pemindahan wang kepada pelbagai akaun bank milik individu lain.

"Pengadu hanya sedar tentang penipuan suspek setelah menunggu sekian lama seorang suspek yang kononnya akan datang berjumpa dengannya di Ipoh sejak 2020 lagi," katanya.

Katanya kes disiasat di bawah Seksyen 420 Kanun Keseksaan dan orang ramai diingatkan sentiasa berwaspada terhadap panggilan telefon yang mencurigakan khususnya yang mendakwa daripada agensi kerajaan. — Bernama
