KUALA LUMPUR (Dec 14): The Ministry of Women, Family and Community Development (KPWKM) wants to strengthen the Women's Anti-Crime Squad (Waja) programme to raise awareness about criminal issues in the aftermath of the killing of autistic child Zayn Rayyan Abdul Matiin.

Its minister, Datuk Seri Nancy Shukri said the Waja Squad could act as a first responder for community policing in case of crime and terrorism.

"This Waja Squad is made up of members of the community including villagers who take action when there arises violence or anything related to the community, so they are the ones who will help.

"But in this case, we need to improve their legal knowledge to know what they can do," she said after closing a Policewomen's Management Development Committee (JPPPW) 2023 Seminar here today.

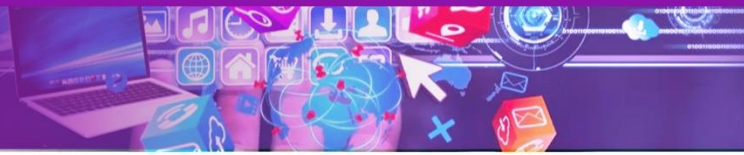

She said there were currently 328,558 Waja Squad members nationwide.

Meanwhile, Nancy called on the community, especially parents, to be more aware of their surroundings and take lessons from the case of Zayn Rayyan's death.

"We need to be aware of children's movements because, for example, anyone can take advantage of a wandering child ... let us play a role together to ensure our children are always under our care and observation," she said.

In a similar development, Nancy said KPWKM was ready to provide counselling services to Zayn Rayyan's family in coping with the trauma.

The six-year-old autistic child was reported missing on Dec 5 in Damansara Damai, before he was found dead near a stream about 200 metres from his home block at Idaman Apartments the next day. – Bernama

Lelaki rogol anak, 12, kena 16 tahun dan 10 sebatan

Kesalahan mengikut Seksyen 376(3) Kanun Keseksaan itu membawa hukuman penjara antara lapan dan 30 tahun, dan sekurang-kurangnya 10 sebatan, jika sabit kesalahan.

KOTA KINABALU: Seorang lelaki yang merogol anak perempuannya selepas memintanya menonton video lucah, dipenjara 16 tahun dan dikenakan 10 sebatan.

Hakim Mahkamah Sesyen Amir Shah Amir Hassan menjatuhkan hukuman itu kepada lelaki itu yang menukar pengakuannya dan mengaku kepada pertuduhan terhadapnya selepas empat saksi dipanggil oleh pihak pendakwaan.

Lelaki itu telah merogol anak perempuan berusia 12 tahun itu antara Januari dan Mei 2022 antara 1 tengah hari dan 11.30 malam di sebuah rumah di Manggatal.

Kesalahan mengikut Seksyen 376(3) Kanun Keseksaan itu membawa hukuman penjara antara lapan dan 30 tahun, dan sekurang-kurangnya 10 sebatan, jika sabit kesalahan.

Mahkamah memerintahkan lelaki itu menjalani hukuman penjara mulai tarikh dia ditangkap pada 12 Dis 2022.

Lelaki itu menghadapi dua lagi pertuduhan kerana melakukan amang seksual terhadap anak perempuan tirinya dan perbicaraan kes itu akan diteruskan pada 20 dan 21 Feb tahun depan.

Semasa mitigasi, lelaki yang tidak diwakili itu memohon hukuman ringan dengan mengatakan bahawa dia mempunyai anak kecil untuk dijaga dan dia menyesali salah lakunya.

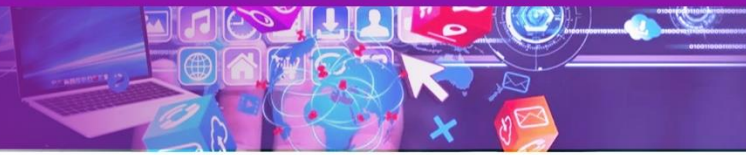

Bagaimanapun, Timbalan Pendakwa Raya Dacia Jane Romanus menggesa mahkamah menjatuhkan hukuman berbentuk pencegahan memandangkan ia kesalahan berat dan berleluasa.

Kejadian berlaku ketika mangsa sedang tidur apabila lelaki itu datang kepadanya, memeluknya dan memintanya menonton video lucah.

Kerana takutkan bapanya, dia ikut saja apa yang diminta. Lelaki itu kemudian memintanya melakukan perbuatan seperti dalam video lucah sebelum dia merogol mangsa.

Mangsa mendapat kekuatan untuk membuat laporan polis terhadap bapanya selepas kakak tirinya yang juga didakwa mangsa amang seksual bapanya, membuat laporan polis.

Lelaki itu ditahan berikutan laporan polis yang dibuat oleh anak kandungnya dan anak tirinya.

Mengaku salah lakukan amang seksual

Melaka: Pekerja kedai makan mengaku bersalah di Mahkamah Sesyen Ayer Keroh, semalam, atas pertuduhan melakukan amang seksual fizikal dan bukan fizikal terhadap kanak-kanak perempuan yang juga adik angkatnya, September lalu.

Tertuduh, Muhammad Kamarudin Muhammad Amin, 18, membuat pengakuan itu sejurus pertuduhan dibacakan di hadapan Hakim Mohd Sabri Ismail.

Mengikut pertuduhan pertama, dia dituduh melakukan amang seksual fizikal terhadap kanak-kanak perempuan berusia 13 tahun itu dengan memeluk, meramas dan menghisap buah dada mangsa.

Kesalahan itu didakwa mengikut Seksyen 14 (a) Akta Kesalahan Seksual Terhadap Kanak-kanak 2017 (AKSTK 2017) yang memperuntukkan hukuman penjara maksimum 20 tahun dan boleh disebat jika sabit kesalahan.

Bagi pertuduhan kedua, dia didakwa melakukan amang seksual bukan fizikal terhadap mangsa sama dengan cara menunjukkan kemaluan kepada mangsa sama sambil melaku-kan onani.

Berikutan itu, tertuduh melakukan suatu kesalahan yang boleh dihukum mengikut seksyen 15 (c) AKSTK 2017, sabit kesalahan boleh dihukum penjara maksimum 10 tahun atau denda maksimum RM20,000 atau kedua-duanya sekali.

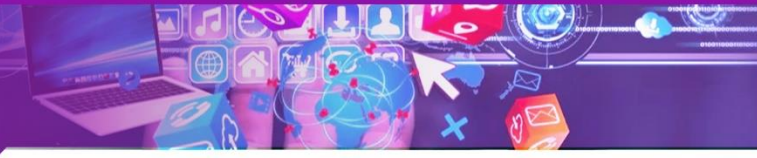

Kedua-dua kesalahan didakwa dilakukan di sebuah rumah beralamat di Lorong Pokok Mangga, di sini, pada pertengahan September lalu, kira-kira jam 10 pagi.

Berhubung pengakuan bersalah tertuduh, Timbalan Pendakwa Raya Muhammad Nazrin Ali Rahim memohon tarikh baharu bagi mendapatkan laporan sosial daripada Jabatan Kebajikan Masyarakat (JKM) sebelum mahkamah menjatuhkan hukuman.

Katanya, ini memandangkan tertuduh adalah pesalah muda iaitu baru berusia 18 tahun.

Mahkamah membenarkan permohonan pendakwaan dan menetapkan 18 Januari 2024 untuk fakta dan hukuman bagi mendapatkan laporan sosial berkenaan. Tiada jaminan dibenarkan terhadap tertuduh.

Officers will be given more training in handling stalking cases, say cops

PETALING JAYA: Police have investigated nine cases since the anti-stalking law to complement the anti-sexual harassment law was passed in the Dewan Rakyat in May.

Two cases have been resolved while seven others are still pending, said Asst Comm Siti Kamsiah Hassan, who is also Bukit Aman's Sexual, Women, and Child Investigations Division (D11) principal assistant director.

"We admit that there are still weaknesses in handling stalking cases – this is because this Act is still new.

"Nevertheless, continuous training will be given to investigation officers," she told The Star.

As with other criminal cases, complainants are advised to lodge a report at the nearest police station.

"If their reports are not taken seriously, they can contact either the officer in charge of the police district or D11 Aman directly," she said, adding that two of the cases received by the police were from male complainants.

Know your rights: Stalking victims are advised to lodge a police report and they can request for a protection order.

ACP Siti Kamsiah also said based on the reported cases, stalkers would harass their victims using social media platforms such as Instagram, Facebook, TikTok or others.

"Section 98A of the Criminal Procedure Code has details about a protection order that can be obtained by a victim and the ways to apply for it.

"Each reported case will be investigated under Sec 507A if there is an element of stalking," she said.

Under the law, stalking is defined as a repeated act of harassment, intending to cause or knowing that the act is likely to result in distress, fear or alarm to any person.

The punishment for stalking under Section 507A is imprisonment for up to three years, a fine, or both if convicted.

On sexual harassment, ACP Siti Kamsiah said the police do not have statistics for cases under the Act.

The offenders may end up paying the victims up to RM250,000 in compensation or in default, serve a two-year jail term.

A tribunal is provided for under the Anti-Sexual Harassment Act, which was gazetted on Oct 18 last year.

Among others, the Act provides for rights of redress for any person who has been sexually harassed, and a tribunal for Anti-Sexual Harassment to hear complaints on sexual harassment, raise awareness, and prevent such occurrences.

ACP Siti Kamsiah said the Women, Family and Community Development Ministry is in the process of finalising some matters on the establishment of the tribunal.

"By looking at the definition as mentioned in the Anti-Sexual Harassment Act, we know that it does not directly involve enforcement by the police.

"If the complainant chooses to make a complaint to the tribunal, the investigative action will be carried out by the tribunal as stated in Sections 3 and 4 of the Act.

"If the tribunal finds that there is a criminal offence, then the case can be referred to the police and an investigation will be carried out according to normal procedures," she added.

Tribunal to get a trial run for fine-tuning, says Nancy

PETALING JAYA: A simulation run of the Anti-Sexual Harassment Act 2022's tribunal will be carried out soon, says Women, Family and Community Development Minister Datuk Seri Nancy Shukri.

She said certain aspects of the tribunal were still being fine-tuned.

"So far, we already have the names of the president and deputy president," she said after the ministry's recent media gathering in Kuala Lumpur.

She said the ministry's Jerayawara Kasih@Anti-Sexual Harassment Advocacy Programme had 25,251 participants in 65 programmes organised in line with the Anti-Sexual Harassment Act 2022 (Act 840).

"Through this, men are coming forward. Perhaps they feel ashamed about going to the police to report sexual harassment cases. With our counsellors, they can pour out their feelings via drawings or take a test to reveal their predicament.

"This is how they show us the challenges they face as victims."

The enactment of the Act has allowed a more conducive environment for victims of sexual harassment to come forward and the appropriate action to be taken, said Nancy.

When asked if there should be more closed-circuit television cameras installed especially in workplaces, she said that it was highly recommended but this depended on employers' willingness to do so.

Recently, then deputy women, family and community development minister Datuk Aiman Athirah Sabu told the Dewan Rakyat that the ministry had received a total of 1,486 cases of complaints related to sexual harassment. Of that number, 411 cases (27.7%) involved male victims.

On Oct 26, Nancy said her ministry had obtained approval to appoint a president and a deputy president, 10 panel members as well as 20 supporting staff members for the tribunal.
